Foreword

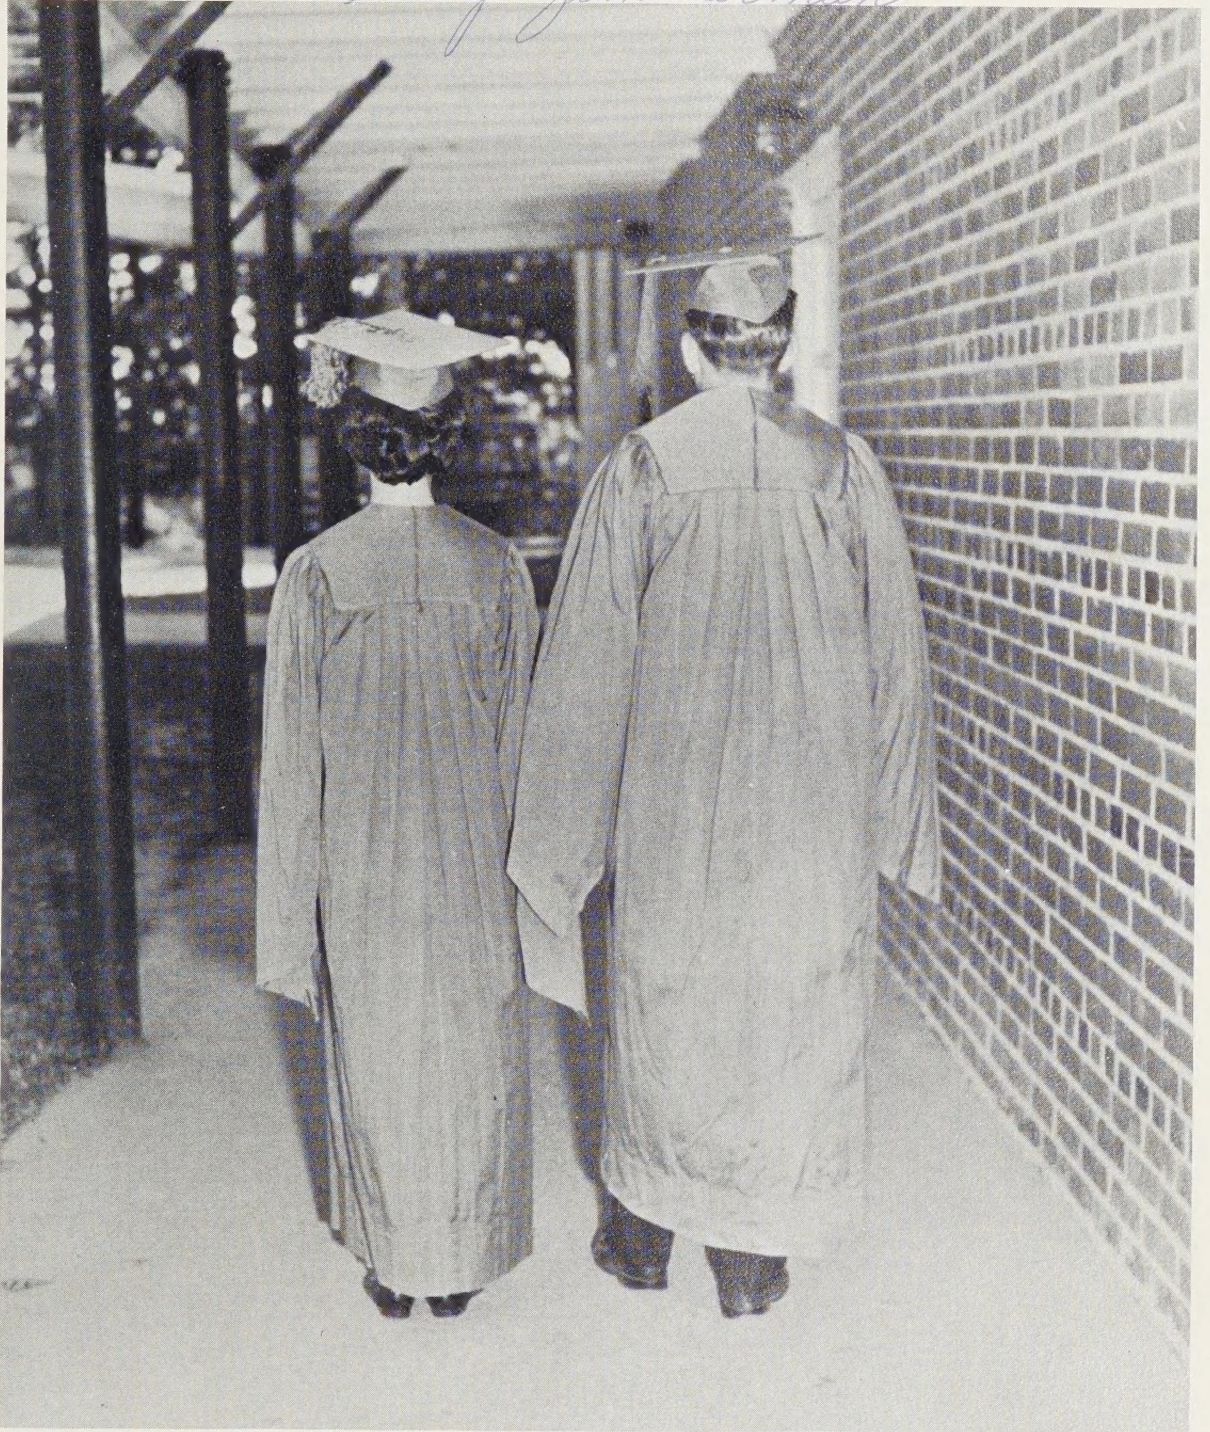

It is with sadness in our hearts that we, the graduating class, leave Dear Old Bethel. We long to remain here so that we may still enjoy the friendships we have made and the happy moments that we shall never forget. But, we must leave and so we hope that with this edition of the Hilltopper we will bring back those happy memories in the years to come.

Never, never forget . . .

Patsy Zimmerman

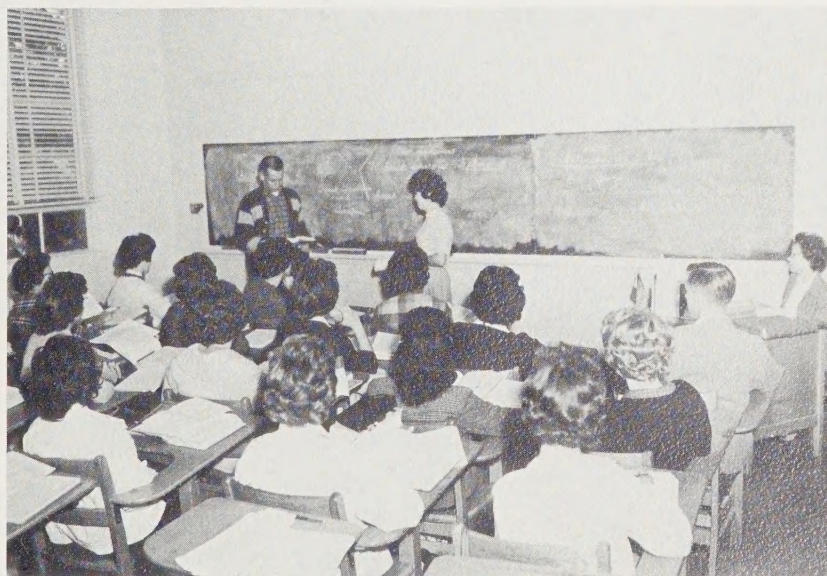

dear youth . . .

That every day we are building . . .

the lives we . . .

must live with forever . . .

Every day the thoughts we think,

the lessons we learn . . .

The work we accomplish . . .

and the service we give is being . . .

built into our own lives.

Faculty

Dear Seniors:

You have spent twelve years in the public schools of North Carolina. This June 1963 you will have successfully completed a prescribed course of study. It is the end of a certain piece of work, a milestone in life's progress for each of you who is to receive his or her high school diploma. Graduating from high school marks the achievement of a certain wonderful goal, but it does not mean that education is complete. You will continue to learn as long as you live. Some of you are planning to go on to school for further formal training, others of you will choose other fields of endeavor. To each member of the class I wish for you a long life filled with much happiness and success in your chosen fields of work.

Sincerely,
Mr. Hopkins

Dedication . . .

Because of his prudent counsel; because of his sincere desire to make us a better society of young citizens; because of his firmness, but in a sincere way; and because of his contributions to our school as the agricultural teacher, we the senior class of 1963, dedicate to you, MR. ROGERS, the '63 edition of the Hilltopper.

FEATURES

Halloween

The Halloween Carnival was a big success. There were basketball contests, costume contests, dancing, plenty of popcorn and hot dogs to eat, and a King and Queen contest. In addition, a Prince and Princess contest was held. Betty Lynn Jones, a Sophomore, was chosen Queen and Jerry Gentry, a Junior, was chosen King. Faye Gentry, Princess, and Jimmy Rogers, Prince, were chosen from the elementary grades. The dance was thoroughly enjoyed by the high school students. There were witches and goblins to be seen everywhere. The little tots were thrilled by all the confusion and congestion. A bicycle was given away as a door prize to conclude the evening.

Miss Sandra Knott escorted by William Wesley was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1962 by Mrs. Wallace Bradsher during the halftime festivities of our Homecoming Game. Miss Dare Tingen was chosen Maid of Honor. The Queen was chosen by the Student Body. There were attendants from the four classes.

After the Homecoming Game a dance was held in the Gymnasium. As soon as everyone was seated, the Queen and her court were presented. Following the recognition of the Queen, Miss Sandra Knott and her court led in the first dance. Everyone enjoyed the colorful events. Below, we see some of the students as they were preparing for the football game and the dance. All the preparations were carefully planned by the Beta Club. Homecoming was a big success!!!

Valentine 1962

Miss Peggy Jones, escorted by Richard Dickerson, was chosen Valentine Queen of '62 by the student body. The Maid of Honor was Miss Gail Gentry escorted by Eddie Cox. The Junior attendants were Miss Dare Tingen, escorted by Bill Joe Fuller, and Miss Gay Davis, escorted by Malcolm Dunkley. The Senior attendants were Miss Delaine Day, escorted by Wallace Yarbrough, and Miss Paula Clayton, escorted by Brannon Day. The Sophomore attendant was Miss Linda Long, escorted by Ben Berry, and the Freshman attendant was Miss Becky Rogers, escorted by Bill Berry. The flower girl was Miss Susan Blalock and the crown bearer was Rusty Lowery.

We express our feelings of this sticky job.

The mathematical wizards end up one cent short.

F.F.A.

The FFA boys under the leadership of Mr. Earl Rogers strive for the development of agricultural cooperation, citizenship and leadership. Their motto is Learning. They go by their motto: Learning To Do, Doing To Learn, Earning To Live, Living To Serve. Their officers include: R. O. Slaughter, President; Eddie Denny, Vice President; Cecil Melton, Treasurer; Ray Carr, Secretary; and Mr. Earl Rogers, Advisor.

Patsy,

It has been just wonderful knowing such a delightful person as you. You always seem to have a smile no matter what time of day it is. I hope that my senior year will be as glorious as this one. With you around I know that it will be. I wish you all the luck and happiness that a girl could ever receive for no one deserves it anymore than you do. May God be with you whenever you go.

Best wishes to a very wonderful person.
Love ya, Dianne
